

ALMON ASBURY LIEUALLEN PARK

---

500 Residence Street

1.57 Acres

Description:

Almon Asbury Lieuallen Park is a small and peaceful park. It is a great place to go and read, lie out in the sun, or have lunch while looking out at one of the best views of Moscow Mountain. This park is nestled in a secluded neighborhood, away from the hustle and bustle of the city. To get there, turn north on Cherry Street (off of A St.), drive up to the top of the hill and turn right onto Residence Street. The park will be on your left.

Amenities:

- Benches- 2
- Renovated Playground Equipment
- Dog Sanitation Station
- Swings- 2
- Amazing View

History:

1975:

- December 16 – The original land donation of A.A. Lieuallen Park from Dr. and Mrs. Robert Otness (a great grandson of pioneer A.A. Lieuallen) to be used as a neighborhood park was approved by City Council.

1978:

- Development of A.A. Lieuallen Park began.

1979:

- November – A.A. Lieuallen Park development was completed. The amount requested from the City Council was $9,375 for the complete development of the park. Only $5,000 was given for park development.

1987:

- August 19 – A.A. Lieuallen Park was rededicated with a new sign explaining A.A. Lieuallen’s contributions to the Moscow area.

2009:

- August - The old unsafe playground was removed and replaced.

Old Playground vs. New Playground

