March 20, 2020

- WHEREAS, COVID-19, is a respiratory disease caused by the SARS-CoV-2 virus, which is a new strain of coronavirus that had not been previously identified in humans and can easily spread from person to person, which can result in serious illness or death thereby threatening widespread and/or severe damage to life or property thereby creating an “emergency” as defined by Idaho Code § 46-1002; and
- WHEREAS, the Department of Health and Human Services Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”) identifies the potential public health threat posed by COVID-19 both globally and in the United State as “high”, and has advised that person-to-person spread of COVID-19 will continue to occur globally, including within the United States; and
- WHEREAS, on January 30, 2020, the International Health Regulations Emergency Committee of the World Health Organization declared the outbreak a “public health emergency of international concern”; and
- WHEREAS, on January 31, 2020, Health and Human Services Secretary Alex M. Azar II declared a public health emergency for the United States to aid the nation’s healthcare community in responding to COVID-19; and
- WHEREAS, on February 29, 2020, Washington Governor Jay Inslee proclaimed a State of Emergency exists in all counties in the State of Washington; and
- WHEREAS, on March 11, 2020, The World Health Organization (WHO) made the assessment that COVID-19 can be characterized as a pandemic; and
- WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, the Idaho Governor Brad Little declared a state of emergency due to COVID-19. State officials say more than 100 people have been tested for COVID-19 in Idaho, but no one has been positive for COVID-19; and
- WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, the President of the United States issued an emergency declaration for the country in response to the increasing number of COVID-19 cases within the U.S.; and
- WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare and the Idaho North Central Health District issued recommendations for mass gatherings and public events in order to contain and slow the spread of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, a local disaster emergency may be declared by the Mayor within a political subdivision, pursuant to Idaho Code § 46-1011 and other relevant sections of Idaho Code; and

WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, Moscow Mayor Bill Lambert issued a Local Emergency Proclamation, declaring a local disaster emergency, pursuant to Idaho Code § 46-1011 and other relevant sections of Idaho Code; and

WHEREAS, on March 16, 2020, the Moscow City Council adopted Resolution 2020-05, authorizing continuation of Mayor Lambert's Local Emergency Proclamation until May 5, 2020; and

WHEREAS, on March 20, 2020, the Council for the city of Moscow adopted an ordinance enacting a new Chapter 11 to Title 1 of the Moscow City Code, setting forth the authority, purpose, and intent of emergency powers to address the threat of COVID-19; and

WHEREAS, the risk of community spread throughout the city of Moscow impacts the life and health of the public and public health is imperiled by the person-to-person spread of COVID-19, and the reduction of opportunities for the person-to-person transmission of COVID-19 is necessary to combat the spread of the disease; and

WHEREAS, both the CDC, the federal government, and our local public health district have recommended practices to prevent the rapid spread of COVID-19, including social distancing, and on March 18, 2020, Governor Brad Little adopted these recommendations for the state of Idaho. The recommendations include that individuals practice social distancing by not gathering in groups of more than ten (10) people and that they avoid eating at bars, restaurants and food courts. The recommendations further include that individuals use drive-up, take-out and delivery options for meals. The policies, along with other information, are available on the CDC's official COVID-19 website. (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/index.html>). Additionally, as of March 19, 2020 there are twenty-three (23) cases of COVID-19 within Idaho;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lambert, Mayor of the City of Moscow, Idaho, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Moscow City Code Title 1-11-05(B), and the common law authority to protect the public in the event of an emergency hereby order as follows:

1. There shall be no gatherings in groups of more than ten (10) persons within the boundaries of the City of Moscow.
