

Over twenty-five artists residing in the Palouse communities of Moscow, Pullman, and Uniontown invite you into their private studios and/or public studio clusters on June 14 and 15. This second annual tour is presented in conjunction with Moscow's popular artwalk that begins June 13. Throughout the weekend art will truly "be in the air" as the artwalk and the 2008 Artist Studio Tour offer unique regional art events to showcase three art towns on the Palouse. Open studio visits proved to be a popular event during the 2007 Studio Tour; join us for an expanded set of visits this year!

Your 2008 Artist Studio Tour ticket ($8 for seniors; $10 for general public) provides you entry into all studio spaces, ranging from converted warehouses, to residential studios, to outdoor gardens, and to Uniontown's center for the arts, the Dahmen Barn.

Saturday studio tours in Moscow and Pullman will be held from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., with 12 noon to 1 p.m. reserved for lunches.

Sunday tours at Artisans of the Dahmen Barn in Uniontown will be held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Lunch selections will be available between noon and 2 p.m. at the Barn.

Tickets at Bookpeople of Moscow, Neill's Flowers and Gifts in Pullman, Wawawai Canyon Winery (Hwy. 270), Living in the Garden (Pullman-Palouse Highway, Reid Road) and in Uniontown at Artisans at the Dahmen Barn, Gift Shop.
