

IDAHO MUSIC EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, The Idaho Music Educators Association is a nonprofit educational organization of current and former music teachers and administrators; and
- WHEREAS, The Idaho Music Educators Association goals include the advocacy of music with government, school boards & administrators, parents & society and betterment of conditions for teaching music to students; and
- WHEREAS, The Idaho Music Educators Association recognizes outstanding student musicians and encourages exploration of better and alternative teaching materials and methods; and
- WHEREAS, The Idaho Music Educators Association All-State Conference will take place in Moscow Saturday, February 3, 2018; and
- WHEREAS, The Idaho Music Educators Association All-State Conference has not been held in our area since 1995; and
- WHEREAS, On Wednesday, January 31, 2018, 660 of Idaho's top high school musicians will arrive in Moscow to rehearse for the Saturday performances with nationally renowned guest conductors; and
- WHEREAS, Numerous students from District 2, which includes all schools between Grangeville and Potlatch, have been selected for this honor; chosen for Orchestra, Band, Mixed Choir, Treble Choir and the first ever Jazz Choir;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lambert, Mayor for the City of Moscow, do hereby proclaim the week of January 29, 2018 as in the City of Moscow, and I urge all citizens to support these high school musicians by attending the performances on the University of Idaho campus.

Idaho Music Educators Association Week

DATED this 31st day of January, 2018.

Bill Lambert, Mayor