

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and city levels. These unsung heroes do the work that keeps our nation working; and
- WHEREAS, Public employees take not only jobs, but oaths; and
- WHEREAS, Public employees in the City of Moscow are committed to professional excellence and customer service; and
- WHEREAS, Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and
- WHEREAS, Public servants include teachers, doctors and scientists . . . train conductors and astronauts . . . nurses and safety inspectors . . . laborers, computer technicians and social workers . . . and countless other occupations. Day in and day out they provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and
- WHEREAS, Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Moscow recognizes the generous contributions of time and talent by public employees and community volunteers, and the importance of the services they render;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lambert, Mayor for the City of Moscow, do hereby proclaim May 3-9, 2015 as:
