

VETERAN'S DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, November 11 is the anniversary of the armistice signed by the Allies and the Germans in 1918, which ended World War I after four years of conflict; and

WHEREAS, President Woodrow Wilson issued the first Armistice Day proclamation in November of 1919, and set the tone for future observances, by observing that:

“To us in America, the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has freed us and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of the nation;”
and

WHEREAS, The name was changed from Armistice Day to Veterans Day by an act of Congress in 1954, when then-President Eisenhower called on citizens to observe the day in honor of all who had served in America's wars through the years; and

WHEREAS, More than 130,000 veterans of our Nation's military reside in Idaho; and

WHEREAS, The Veterans Assistance Program at the University of Idaho is committed to helping student veterans and their dependents succeed; and

WHEREAS, Veterans Day occurs on a Sunday this year, the federal holiday will be recognized on Monday November 12; and

WHEREAS, Our nation is indebted to the service men and women who have made great sacrifices, endured long absences from loved ones, and suffered injury or death to protect our homes and families; and

WHEREAS, Veteran's Day is an opportunity to honor our nation's veterans for their sacrifices

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nancy Chaney, Mayor for the City of Moscow, do hereby proclaim November 11, 2012 as in the City of Moscow, and I urge all citizens to reflect upon the sacrifices made by America's military personnel to preserve and promote enduring peace around the world.

DATED this 5th day of November, 2012.
