

MOSCOW COMMUNITY WALK PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, 2011 marks the 5th year of Moscow's annual CommUNITY Walk; and

WHEREAS, The example set here can inspire others around the region and around the world; and

WHEREAS, This event celebrates and nourishes Moscow's reputation as a welcoming and inclusive community; and

WHEREAS, Moscow Human Rights Commission and Latah County Human Rights Task Force and their allies are committed protecting civil and human rights through social justice and unity; and

WHEREAS, Human rights are the rights of everyone, and are furthered by our efforts to eliminate discrimination, improve relations, and guide policies and practices that support those rights; and

WHEREAS, The CommUNITY Walk symbolizes our commitment to preserving and enhancing peace and understanding among people of all persuasions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nancy Chaney, Mayor of the City of Moscow, do hereby proclaim Saturday, April 23rd, 2011 as in the City of Moscow, and I urge everyone to promote compassionate connections in this community and beyond, and to join in this inspirational event.

CommUNITY Walk Day

DATED this 23rd day of April, 2011

Nancy Chaney
Nancy Chaney, Mayor