

MOSCOW COMMUNITY WALK PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, 2010 marks the 4th year that Moscow will celebrate the annual CommUNITY Walk; and

WHEREAS, Goodness, peace, and understanding among people of all persuasions is possible in the world that we share; and

WHEREAS, People here are dedicated to preserving and enhancing Moscow's reputation as a welcoming and inclusive community; and

WHEREAS, Moscow Human Rights Commission; Latah County Human Rights Task Force; local, state, and national organizations and agencies; and leaders in our schools, universities, government, and neighborhoods are committed to eliminating discrimination, improving relations, and guiding policies and practices that affect civil and human rights; and

WHEREAS, Walking together symbolizes our commitment to social justice and unity;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nancy Chaney, Mayor of the City of Moscow, do hereby proclaim Saturday, April 24th, 2010 as in the City of Moscow, and I urge all people to promote peaceful, meaningful connections in this community and beyond, and to participate in this inspirational event.

CommUNITY Walk Day

DATED this 19th day of April, 2010

Nancy Chaney
_____
Nancy Chaney, Mayor